

See work card
UNITED STATES GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

699.55

Adopted name Tower (PEAK)
Thing named and location peak, Yosemite National Park, north boundary, Tuolumne and Mono Co., California, in Sec. 34, T. 4 N., R. 22 E., Mt. D. Mer. Altitude 11,704 feet.

APPROVED

Names Tower

Authorities
U.S. Geol. Survey map of Yosemite National Park, 1929
Mono National Forest map, 1928.

Local usage
Tower

Named by the Whitney Survey after original name, 'Castle Peak', by Goddard, by mistake had been transferred to, and become established on another peak, Farquhar.

Submitted by National Park Service

Date August 19, 1931

This card prepared by Frank Bond

Recommendation of Executive Committee
Tower

JUN 30 1932

Approved by Board

S. W. D. R. S. P. F. D.

J. H. B. N. J. J. G.